

"The Professional Ethics Committee of IAVS developed and proposed a Code of Professional Ethics for the Association around three years ago. That Code was subsequently adopted by the Council, and is now published at iavs.org. Since then, the Committee has not been charged with further specific tasks. The Committee stands to consult on questions pertaining to the Code or alleged violations of the Code, but no such situations have arisen within the last year."

- Kerry Woods