

The Ethics Committee of IAVS is charged with oversight regarding the Association's Code of Professional Ethics. It advises the officers and editors of the Association, upon request, concerning response to possible violations of the Code, or on other issues bearing on professional ethics as called upon by the Association's officers. No issues have arisen for committee consideration during the past year.

- Kerry Woods, Chair, IAVS Ethics Committee